Bradley Hoffman 6/12/73-9/23/98
Member of St. Andrew

Brad cared deeply for others. He was gentle and compassionate, made friends easily, was fun-loving, witty, intelligent, independent, capable, and very talented with many, many interests.

Brad was a quiet leader. His peers respected him and often turned to him for advice and counsel. He enjoyed children, and they enjoyed being with him. He was a camp counselor for several summers, leading nature excursions. He loved camping and interacting with nature. He enjoyed cooking, drawing, and working out problems and puzzles. He excelled in gymnastics while growing up in New York. He placed fourth in the state on the still rings when he was in middle school. He was a member of the West Lafayette High School swimming/diving team, during which time he set a school record in diving. Brad was a licensed pilot and loved flying. He was truly vibrantly alive in his joy of living !
