

Hobart W. Jones

April 15, 1921 to Jan. 8, 2015

Lois E. Jones

December 4, 1924 – October 21, 2017

Relationship to St. Andrew United Methodist Church

Hobart and Lois were long time members of St. Andrew United Methodist Church.

Family:

Hobart: Hobart was born April 15, 1921, in Cass County, IN, to the late Thomas and Julia Mae Condon Jones.

Lois: Lois was born on December 4, 1929 to the late Alvin J. and Lois E. Smith in Waterloo, IN.

Hobart and Lois were married on December 12, 1943 in Waterloo, IN.

Children: Jennie L. Jones, of West Lafayette, Thomas S. Jones (Susan) of Kalamazoo, MI, Douglas W. Jones (Patty) of West Lafayette,, Daniel Kaye Jones (Michele) of Noblesville, IN.

Grandchildren: M. Scott Jones, Jennifer R. Jones, Steven H. Jones

Great grandchildren: Marlee E. Jones, Maxwell H. Jones

Recognitions, Activities, Special Interests:

Hobart was a professor of Animal Sciences and widely respected in the swine industry for his expertise. He taught at Purdue for 38 years before retiring in 1988. During this time he won numerous teaching awards and national awards for his work in Animal Science and the swine industry. He enjoyed teaching and his students. He also enjoyed watching collegiate sports, especially Purdue teams.

Lois worked for Borg Warner in quality control, calibrating springs for bomber planes, during World War II. After moving to the Lafayette area in 1950 she devoted her time to being a Christian wife, mother and grandmother. She loved working and teaching children, including teaching in St. Andrew's children's ministries. She volunteered at Cumberland School. Her favorite times were spent with her children and grandchildren.

Use of Funds:

Youth programs at St. Andrew United Methodist Church. Funds in memory of Hobart were dispersed supporting youth that were part of the 2016 Senior High Mission Trip to Centerville, OH. Funds in memory of Lois were used to purchase new sofas and accessories for the Jr. High classroom in 2022. Funds in her memory were also used to purchase a new basketball goal post pad in 2022.

2016 Senior High Mission Group at Centerville, OH

2022 New sofas and accessories for Jr.High classroom

2022 Basketball Goal Pole Padding was replaced

Obituary Published in the Journal & Courier on Jan. 11, 2015

Hobart W. Jones, 93

Hobart "Hobe" W. Jones, 93, of West Lafayette died Thursday, January 8, 2015, at Westminster Health Care. He was born April 15, 1921, in Cass County, IN, to the late Thomas and Julia Mae Condon Jones.

Hobe graduated from Purdue University in 1943 and became Assistant County Extension Agent in Tippecanoe County. He received his Masters Degree from The Ohio State University in 1946 and then managed farms in Indiana, Michigan and Ohio. In 1950 he came to Purdue University and taught Animal Science in the College of Agriculture. He received his PhD in 1958 from the University of Kentucky. Hobe retired in 1988 after 38 years at Purdue. While at Purdue he won many teaching awards, and national awards for his work in Animal Science and the swine industry.

On December 12, 1943 he married Lois E. Smith in Waterloo, IN and she survives.

He was a member of St. Andrew United Methodist Church. Hobe loved his Lord Jesus Christ, his family, Purdue University and his many students.

Surviving along with his wife are his children Jennie Lu Jones of West Lafayette, Thomas Scott Jones (Susan) of Kalamazoo, MI, Douglas Wayne Jones (fiance Patty) of West Lafayette, Daniel Raye Jones (Michele) of Noblesville, grandchildren Michael Scott Jones (Karin) of Ft. Pierce, FL, Jennifer Royal Jones of Pittsburg, PA, Steven Hobart Jones of Noblesville, great grandchildren Marlee Elizabeth and Maxwell Hobart Jones of Ft. Pierce, FL. Also surviving are his brother James L. Jones (Nancy) of Lafayette and several nieces, nephews and cousins. Hobe was preceded in death by sisters Mary Atkinson and Ellen Mackey.

Visitation will be 10:00 AM until the time of service at 11:00 AM Saturday, January 17, 2015 at St. Andrew United Methodist Church, Revs. Tim Burchell and Pat Sleath officiating. Private entombment will be at Tippecanoe Memory Gardens. Those wishing may contribute in Hobart's memory to St. Andrew United Methodist Church youth programs or the Baltzell Endowed Scholarship honoring Millard Plumlee, Hobart Jones and Martin Stob (online at purdue.edu/giving or checks to Purdue Foundation with memo to Baltzell Scholarship, 403 W. Wood St., West Lafayette, IN 47907). Soller-Baker Funeral Home in charge of arrangements. Sign the guest book and leave memories at www.soller-baker.com.

Published in the Journal & Courier from Oct. 25 to Oct. 27, 2017

Lois E. Jones

Lois E. Jones, 92, of West Lafayette, passed on Saturday, October 21, 2017 at Westminster Village. She was born in Waterloo, IN on December 4, 1924 to Alvin J. and Lois E. Smith. She graduated from Waterloo High School and attended Purdue University. On December 12, 1943 she married Hobart W. Jones in Waterloo. He preceded her in death in January of 2015. During World War II Lois worked for Borg Warner in quality control, calibrating springs for bomber planes. She and her husband moved to the Lafayette area in 1950 for his position at Purdue. Lois was a devoted Christian wife, mother and grandmother. She loved working and teaching children, including teaching in children's ministries in the church she attended and volunteering at Cumberland School. Her favorite times were spent with her children and grandchildren. She was a member of St. Andrew Methodist Church. Surviving are her children, daughter Jennie Lu Jones of West Lafayette, Thomas Scott Jones (Susan) of Kalamazoo, Michigan, Douglas Wayne Jones (Patty) of West Lafayette, Daniel Raye Jones (Michele) of Noblesville, grandchildren, Michael Scott Jones (Karin) of Fort Pierce, Florida, Jennifer Royal Jones of Brooklyn, New York and Steven Hobart Jones of Minneapolis, Minnesota, great grandchildren, Marlee Elizabeth and Maxwell Hobart Jones of Fort Pierce, Florida and sister-in-law Nancy Jones and several nieces and nephews. She is preceded in death by her parents, her husband, three sisters and two brothers. Services will be private at a later date. The family wish to thank the staff and nurses of both Westminster Village and St. Elizabeth Hospice for their loving care. In lieu of flowers memorial donations may be made to St. Andrew Methodist Church youth programs www.andrew-umc.org or Purdue Music Organizations www.purdue.edu. You may visit www.soller-baker.com to sign the guest book and leave memories and condolences.