

Dorothy M. Diekman
October 30, 1919 to January 13, 1992

Relationship to St. Andrew: Dorothy moved to West Lafayette in 1984 to be near her son and joined St. Andrew shortly after arriving.

Family: Dorothy had married Earl W. Diekman in 1941 and they made there home in Freelandville, IN. They had two sons, Mark A. and Daniel W. and three grandsons, Greg, Casey and Brian.

Recognitions: Dorothy had been a farm wife throughout her life. She had been active in her church, the schools and other community organizations at Freelandville. Since coming to West Lafayette she had volunteered at Home Hospital and Wabash Center. She was president of Wabash Gardens Condominium Association.

Memorials: Gifts were placed in the General Memorial Fund.

Dorothy Diekman, 72, farm wife, volunteer

D.M. Diekman

Dorothy M. Shepherd Diekman, 72, of 268 Navajo Drive, WL, died unexpectedly at 6:29 p.m. Monday in St. Elizabeth Hospital Medical Center.

Born on Oct. 30, 1919, in Sullivan, she moved to West Lafayette in 1984 from Freelandville, where she and her husband, Earl W. Diekman, farmed. They were married Sept. 23, 1941, in St. Louis, Mo. He died May 26, 1984.

Mrs. Diekman was a member of St. Andrew United Methodist Church in West Lafayette and was a volunteer at Home Hospital and at Wabash Center, where she read books to the children. She was president of Wabash Gardens Condominium Association and formerly was a member of Evangelical United Brethren Church and formerly was active in Junior Progressive Club and the PTA, all in Freelandville.

She enjoyed traveling and sports, and she aquacized at the Lafayette YWCA.

Surviving are two sons, Mark A. Diekman of West Lafayette and Daniel W. Diekman of Logansport; a brother, Raymond Reid of De Ridder, La.; and a sister, Margaret Miller of Duluth, Minn.

DIECKMAN, Dorothy M.

Calling 5-8 p.m. today, Soller-Baker West Lafayette Funeral Chapel. Service 10 a.m. Thursday St. Andrew United Methodist Church, the Rev. Robert Dexter officiating. Interment Friday at Evangelical Brethren Cemetery, Freelandville. Three grandchildren, Greg Diekman of Logansport, Casey and Brian Diekman, both of West Lafayette, survive. Memorials to Lafayette YWCA Aquatics Dept.