

Gorman M. Brown
February 2, 1901 to May 21, 1963

Relationship to St. Andrew: Mr. Brown was a charter member of St. Andrew EUB Church and served on its Administrative Board.

Family: Gorman Brown and Jeannette Jenners were married in 1920. They had two daughters, Mrs. Robert Douglass and Mrs. Wallace Douglas, and four grandchildren.

Recognitions: Mr. Brown was a community leader as a member of the Chamber of Commerce and also was a horseman being a member of the Lafayette Saddle Club.

Memorial: A grand piano and a permanent plant and vase placed in the Narthex were given in honor of Mr. Brown.

G. M. Brown, Shoe Store Manager, Dies

Gorman M. Brown, 62, manager of Keller's Shoe Store, died at 9 p.m. Tuesday in Home Hospital. He had been in failing health four years and a hospital patient three weeks.

Born and reared at Martinsville, he came to Lafayette at 17 years of age and became manager of the store on the south side of the public square two years later. He was married in 1920 to Jeannette R. Jenners.

Mr. Brown was a member of the Chamber of Commerce, Lafayette Saddle Club and St. Andrew's EUB Church, serving on the official board.

Surviving are the widow; two daughters, Mrs. Robert T. Douglass of Dayton, Ohio, and Mrs. Wallace A. Douglass of Buffalo, N.Y., and two sisters, Mrs. Mae Goddard of Lafayette and Mrs. Joy Hall of Goodland.

BROWN, Gorman M. — Friends may call after 4 p.m. Thursday at Hippensteel Funeral Home. Services at 1:30 p.m. Friday in Hippensteel Chapel, the Rev. Garth L. Shepherd officiating. Interment in Tippecanoe Memory Gardens. Four grandchildren survive.
--