St. Andrew Ex-Pastor Dies at 51

The Rev. James W. Sutherland, 51, former pastor of St. Andrew Evangelical United Brethren Church in West Lafayette, fell dead of a heart attack on the lawn of a home at Goshen Friday afternoon.

He lived at Oakwood Park, Syracuse.

He was stricken as he was leaving the home where he had delivered a package.

The Rev. Mr. Sutherland, long in the EUB ministry, was assigned to West Lafayette in 1954 to organize a new EUB Church there.

The parsonage was built at 322 Meridian St. in 1956 and the church at 333 Meridian St. in 1957. He was pastor there seven years.

Born in Ohio, he received the A.B. degree from Ashland College in Ohio in 1934; the B.D. degree from the Evangelical Theological Seminary, Naperville, Ill., in 1939, and doctor of divinity degree from Indiana

Central College, Indianapolis, in 1961. He also did graduate work at Oberlin School of Theology, Oberlin, Ohio.

He was licensed to preach in 1935 by the Ohio Evangelical Conference and ordained in 1938.

The Rev. Mr. Sutherland was a minister in the Ohio Conference and Ohio East Conference for 19 years, then transferred to the Indiana Conference North in 1953.

He was director of Christian education in Crescent Avenue EUB Church, Fort Wayne, for one year, then was assigned to West Lafayette.

After his pastorate here, he was elected director of Christian education of the Indiana Conference North in 1961 and held that office and many other official positions at his death.

He was married to Helen Temple, who survives with a daughter, Mrs. Ruth Ann Munro of Kokomo; a son, James, a student in Westmar EUB College, LeMars, Iowa; his father, the Rev. Roy L. Sutherland of Bradenton, Fla.; four brothers, Dr. Eugene Sutherland of Preston, Ariz., the Rev. Robert Sutherland of Akron, Ohio, Dr. R. L. Sutherland of Bradenton, Fla., and the Rev. John Sutherland of Woodville, Ohio, and two sisters, Mrs. Durlin Dumm of Akron, Ohio, and Mrs. Melvin Hughes of Mansfield, Ohio.

SUTHERLAND, the Rev. James W. — Friends may call at Berhalter and Hutchins' Funeral Home, Kendallville, after 2 p.m. Sunday and until 11 a.m. Monday. Body will lie in state two hours before services in Kendallville EUB Church at 1:30 p.m. Monday; burial at Kendallville.
