

Scott Bradley Schwarz

Oct. 7, 1963 to Nov. 12, 2013

Relationship to St. Andrew United Methodist Church:

Scott was a member of St. Andrew since 1987. He was the son of John and Beverly Bryan; brother of Dawn Hayes and Joy May.

Family:

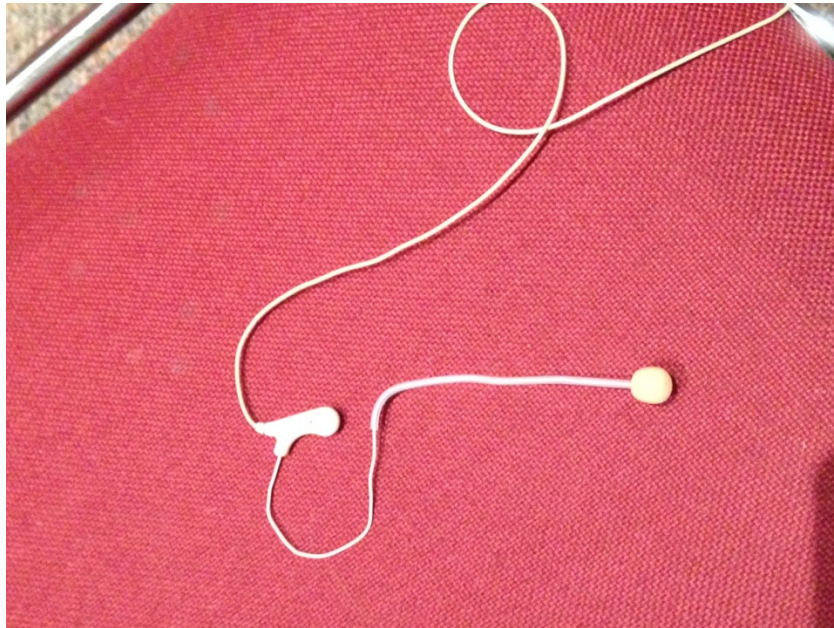

Parents John and Beverly Bryan; brothers Daniel Schwarz, John Schwarz, Kevin Schwarz; sisters Dawn Schwarz Hayes, Joy Bryan May

Recognitions, Activities, Special Interests:

Scott was an expert music mixer; making CDs. He had an extensive collection of vinyl records, movies, and music on CDs.

Use of Funds:

Music Technology: Cordless microphones were purchased with funds.

Cordless Microphone

Obituary Scott B. Schwarz

Scott B. Schwarz, 50, of Lafayette, passed away in his home on Tuesday, November 12, 2013. Born October 7, 1963 in Greencastle, IN, he was the son of Leland Schwarz of Neah Bay, WA and Beverly (Tansey) Bryan (husband, John I.) of Lafayette. He was a graduate of McCutcheon High School and attended IUPUI. He worked as a music mixer and disc jockey for 15 years. He was a member of St. Andrew United Methodist Church.

Surviving with his parents are three brothers, Daniel Schwarz (wife Amy) of Charlotte, NC, John Schwarz (wife, Stacey) of Fishers, IN and Kevin (wife, Kelsey) Schwarz of Noblesville, IN; and two sisters, Dawn Hayes (husband, Kevin) and Joy May (husband, Eric) both of West Lafayette. Also surviving are nine nephews, Andrew (wife, Kenna), Keegan, Blake, Tyler, Bradley, Grayson, Jack, Nathan, and Adam and five nieces, Emily, Meghan, Caroline, Lily, and Cagney.

Visitation one hour prior to the 10 a.m. funeral service on Saturday at Hippensteel Funeral Home with Rev. Tim Burchill officiating. Burial to follow at Rossville Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to St. Andrew United Methodist Church Memorial Fund. Hippensteel Funeral Home is entrusted with care. Share memories and condolences online at www.hippensteelfuneralservice.com

Published in the Journal & Courier from Nov. 13 to Nov. 14, 2013